

AKZÉNTZ

PRO-FORMANCE HARD GEL

This fabulous gel gives you strength and any look desired.

We offer a class that teaches how this line works including advanced sculpting and design. The almond shaping, stiletto, and camouflage design brings more elegance and versatility to your work. This class includes a $200 kit. Both UV/LED cure. Class $200+ gst

We have a unique 2 day class that is our signature format that is designed from Michelle's extensive nail career and training. We compile and share so much information in 2 days including: tips n overlays, prep, dremel, sculpting, reverse french, nail biters, fills, use of forms, basic design, color, full product knowledge, filing, marketing, setup, application, shaping and technique. The class is geared to the experience so many people revisit to work on other areas each time. This is hands on with a model so the nail technician is able to have some one on one instruction also in the afternoon. Class $400+gst (includes $200 kit)

This class is essential to newcomers to Akzentz from other training facilities or when you are switching lines or out of practice and reentering the industry.

Aurora Beauty has proudly been with Akzentz as a local distributor for over 15 years. We have watched the company grow from a small line of 6 products to the beautiful extensive line it is today featured in many countries of the world and a top contender in the nail industry. We partner with Akzentz as a like minded business where education and support is priority along with the unquestionable quality and performance.

Luxio gel polish is high shine, beautiful pigment, strength and versatile for the manicure and pedicure. This pure gel is durable and fabulous to use as a technician. Akzentz developed their Soak off system in the beginning to give the technician the nails that have more flexibility and soak off. This system introduced color to us slowly over the years and the different ways we now sculpt nails. The Soak off system has a new arrival CRYSTAL CLEAR which is loved by everyone as always with amazing results. We offer a specific class that teaches how to use this system expanding your skill set and tools. The Options colors are all soak off and work within the system to create the style of nail you want. Whether you still prefer traditional french or customized with softness or sculpt with clear and finish with limitless color choices. The Options has a vast array of colors including fine sparkles, medium sparkles, chunky sparkles, frosts, brights, opalessence, pastels, shimmers, cremes and rich tones. They can be mixed, layered and used with gel powder for 3D art. They come out with new colors each season and bring such creativity to our work. In the class you also learn techniques to do art using this product with a sculpted nail. This class also includes $200 worth of product. Class $200+gst _____

The Gel Play series was introduced to give the nail technician more artistic freedom in design. This product is the most pigmented therefore is thicker and gives paint abilities whether you are doing lines, design, portraits, shapes, watercolor or creating more of a matte solid back ground. Akzentz adds new colors each season and has created a palette that you can use for your collection. Also we have beautiful brushes to get the looks you are going for. We have a class that also teaches the techniques with this product and includes $200 worth to play with. Class $200+gst _____

Each product that Akzentz develops brings a different look and feel to your work giving you so many tools to create anything you can think up.

The Gel powder is added to our soak off products to give us the 3D capability of flowers, shapes, designs and texture to any look.

The Shine On is a dispersion free top shine coat for any product.

The Matte On is for the matte finish look.

The Lights Out is for glow in the dark effect.

Aurora Beauty supports the Crystal Culture craze that Gina the lead educator from Akzentz developed with Swarovski a few years ago. The designs are made to be a practical way that the nail technician can apply nail couture that is classy, high quality and pre packaged so you can make money while giving the client a unique design that they choose that is reusable and addictive. This jewelry for the nails is so beautiful once everyone sees it they want it. This is an extension of their existing jewelry. Elegant, simplistic and using the real Swarovski Crystals. We offer a class that teaches the technique of application, the basic design and art of serious bling. We also add in some gel art design ideas using Akzentz as your backdrop for your crystals. The class includes a catana and small kit - $399+gst. Be recognized for this skill and bling your clients and salon. Your creativity will soar and you will make more money.
